

Lead and Copper Sample Sites Certification (Form LCR1)

PWS Name: HYATT REGENCY HOTEL
Address: P.O. Box 5087 CHRB
SAIPAN, MP 96950

PWS ID#: MP0000009
System Classification: Non-Transient Non-Community
Resident Population: 12
Non-Transient Population: 370

Sample Sites Identification

1. The following sources have been explored to determine the piping materials of our entire distribution system (check all that apply):

- Utility distribution system maps and records
- Utility Operation & Maintenance (O&M) records
- Utility design plans & specifications (proposed and/or as-built records)
- Facility plumbing and/or building permits
- Interviews with long-time employees or former employees
- Excavation and/or direct inspection of plumbing pipes, fittings, and fixtures
- Existing water quality information
- Interviews with local plumbing and/or heating/air conditioning contractors
- Interviews with building inspectors and/or Department of Public Works
- Interviews with pipe suppliers, contractors and/or developers
- Other sources of information Own/In-house survey/inspection

APPROVED
BY [Signature] DATE 12/26/02

2. The following numbers of Lead & Copper sample sites were identified:

- Number of Tier 1 sites: 10
- Number of Tier 2 sites: _____
- Number of Tier 3 sites: _____ (Community PWS only)
- Number of Other sites: _____
- Number of Alternate sites: _____

Please attach the Lead & Copper
Sample Sites
Identification Table (Form LCR2) to this certification.

3. Minimum number of samples required: 10 (per regulations, based on resident & non-transient populations)

4. PWS Contact for Lead/Copper Sampling: A. De Barras/S. Palomero Phone: 234-1234

Sample Sites Certification

I certify that the information contained in this document and all attachments is true to the best of my knowledge and was gathered using the above-mentioned resources. (Please Note: This certification must be signed by the Administrative Contact on record in DEQ's files or another official of the water system. It cannot be signed by an independent contractor of the water system.)

[Signature]
Signature
Steve Palomero
Print

Director of Engineering
Title
December 26, 2002
Date